

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact Information:

Marianne White

mariannewhite@wholegrowthpartners.com

Whole Growth Partners Awarded Netty Award for Innovative Branding

Denver, October 2024 – Whole Growth Partners is proud to announce they have won a Netty Award for their innovative branding work with top Northwestern Mutual firm, Wealth Coast Wealth Management & Insurance Solutions. This award exemplifies the boutique agency’s creativity, industry experience, and technical skill in delivering impactful branding solutions within the financial services industry.

The Netty Awards celebrate excellence in the digital space, honoring leaders and companies for their innovation, strategic vision, and influence. This award highlights those who push the boundaries in their respective industries, showcasing innovation and effectiveness.

“We are honored to be recognized by a national organization,” said Laura Landergott, co-founder of Whole Growth Partners. “Our team pours their hearts into carefully creating authentic, distinctive, and impactful branding that helps advisors differentiate within the industry.”

The award-winning marketing materials for Wealth Coast Wealth Management and Insurance Solutions showcase Whole Growth Partners’ high-touch approach to financial services branding. Leveraging their strategic fact-finding process, deep industry insight, and a strong understanding of compliance, Whole Growth Partners developed a magnetic brand that resonates with ideal clients and drives measurable growth.

“We are immensely grateful to our clients for entrusting us with their most valuable asset—their brand. This accomplishment is a true reflection of their partnership and confidence in our team,” added Darcy Ripple, co-founder of Whole Growth Partners.

For more information about Whole Growth Partners and its award-winning branding work, visit www.wholegrowthpartners.com.

About Whole Growth Partners

Whole Growth Partners is a concierge marketing agency exclusively serving the financial services industry. Combining niche expertise, industry fluency, and a deep understanding of compliance, the company helps firms across the country succeed by using marketing as a magnet to attract, engage, and retain ideal clients.